OUR SPECIAL PARTICULARITY IN QUALITY

At N.H COMPOSITE DESIGNER'S , all processes and procedures are permanently monitored to guarantee quality of garments. The quality control starts from the purchase of yarn. Before bulk production starts, the yarn is first tested in laboratory and then on sample fabrics production. We try to monitor all knitting with our expert knitting quality, so that we can control the loop length, defaults and avoid yarn lot mixing. All Geiger rolls are being inspected before storing them in our warehouse. During the dyeing process, all dyed batches of fabrics are tested for color variation, GSM, Color fastness, Light fastness, Perspiration and Rubbing fastness in our own lab. During the garments production, quality is being checked from the cutting of fabrics to the packing of garments. Quality inspectors are checking the cutting patterns and the bundles of cut pieces. All sewing production is constantly being monitored in line, and we have a 100% checking system at end of each line. In the packing department we have inspector to the random checking of quality. Furthermore to the regular quality control execution in every section, we have a separate audit team, who is checking permanently whether all the procedures are being followed accurately or not.
